

IMMIGRATION REGULATIONS

WHERE AND HOW CAN I GET A TOURIST VISA TO VISIT MEXICO?

You need to go to a Mexican consulate abroad to ask about the requirements and to take the necessary steps to get your visa. The requirements differ from country to country.

If you are a citizen of Andorra, Argentina, Australia, Austria, Belgium, Canada, Chile, Costa Rica, the Czech Republic, Denmark, Finland, France, Germany, Great Britain, Greece, Hungary, Ireland, Island, Israel, Italy, Japan, Liechtenstein, Luxembourg, Monaco, Netherlands, New Zealand, Norway, Poland, Portugal, Puerto Rico, San Marino, Singapore, Slovenia, Spain, South Korea, Sweden, Switzerland, United States of America, Uruguay or Venezuela, you don't need a visa to enter Mexico, although you must present a valid passport and fill out an immigration form for tourists and business trips, which can be obtained in travel agencies, airlines or at the point where you enter Mexico. Since these regulations may change, it is suggested that you contact the Mexican Embassy or consulate closest to your place of residence and ask about the need of a VISA to visit Mexico

The immigration officer at your point of entry into Mexico can also request that you demonstrate that you have sufficient funds and a return ticket to your country.

If you are a citizen of any other country, you need to go to a Mexican consulate to request a visa.

You may be asked to have an invitation letter from the organizer of the event. If you require such a letter, please e-mail inquiries.dnabarcodes2009@sj.edu with this request.

NATIONALITIES THAT REQUIRE A VISA TO ENTER MEXICO

If you are a citizen of the following countries it is suggested to visit, as early as possible, the closest Mexican Embassy or consulate to get details on how to obtain a VISA.
